NEWS AND UPDATES

NVP Organizes 18th Orientation Session

NVP's 18th Orientation and 11th Appreciation Session hit the calendar. Participants included registered Volunteers and qualified Volunteers who received their Certificates from guest of honor, Hira Zainab. Orientation sessions are generally a great way to connect registered Volunteers where there is a lot of group discussion involved and we get a better insight on the world of Volunteerism. However, the doors of NVP are always open for those who aspire to give back to the community. We welcome you anytime during the day to propose Volunteer opportunity that suits your profile interest.

Institution Partnership

NVP is proud to welcome Theosophical Order of Service (TOS) Pakistan to the ever growing NVP

Family. TOS is a worldwide organization and NVP is partner with them in Pakistan. The institution stands out as forum where likeminded persons of any religion or faith get together to understand and foster ethical, moral and spiritual values and principles.

NVP Growing Fast

NVP is now partner with 35 Institutions. Behbud Secondary School, First Hand Foundation and Jugno School have recently come on board.

NVP's Active Role in Environmental Protection

NVP supports organizations that work for the conservation and protection of Environment. This month, we facilitated Hisaar Foundation with volunteers in 3rd Karachi International Water Conference 2017. In a series of events, as earlier in August NVP facilitated Friedrich-Naumann-Stiftung für die Freiheit (FNF) in a one-day certified training workshop on Climate Change.

SEE WHAT THE VOLUNTEERS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THEIR EXPERIENCE

Mazhar Manasiya

Served as Web Development Associate at SRSC

It wouldn't have been possible to carry out the project all alone, the element of team-work was crucial for us volunteers to accomplish and overcome the challenges.

Geeta Khatri

Served as Community Ambassador at Sehat Kahani

It was always on my wish-list to work for the community and help the needy and deprived people. I wondered if I could create awareness in the areas that are of high vulnerability, thanks to NVP I have a check mark against this wish of mine on the list.

Haseef Sachwani

Served at SRSC as Web Development Associate

The Internship got me familiarized with aspects of practical Life. How clients want their project to look like, the alterations they require, and attending meetings to better understand their expectations. It was amazing to see plenty of people volunteering there and I told myself, why I took too long to become the part of such a noble cause?

Roman Saleem

Served at Street to School and Zindagi Trust (SMB) as Finance Officer and Subject Teacher respectively

The experience with NVP has been good as I volunteered at two institutions through this platform and both the assignments matched with my interests for Finance and Teaching. I went to Zindagi Trust SMB to make students learn, in an interesting turn of events, I ended up overcoming my weaknesses on the subject.

Ali Akbar

Served as Web Development Associate at TDSP

I had an excellent learning experience working at two social projects. I really got to know that everything isn't about money or monetary rewards, somethings are for the prosperity of Humanity.

Syed Ammar

Served at Street to School as Curriculum Development Associate

I was Curriculum Development Associate at Street to School, responsible for designing course content for English Subject. I found the management there highly cooperative, as at times I used to work from home and when I needed to consult their team, I visited their office.

NVP MAKING ITS GROUND AT INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

After ITCN Asia, IT & Telecom Show, where there were participants walking from 30+ Countries, NVP facilitated Hisaar Foundation with Volunteers for 3rd Karachi International Water Conference – 2017 on the subject, THE FUTURE OF WATER. NVP Team was, at first pleased to be of help to these rare organizations that work for the environmental conservation, and then it was glad to hear their valuable feedback.

Such large scale international events require plenty of Human Resources, a team that works diligently and tirelessly to deliver the impact that they aim to make and that's exactly where we team NVP takes pride as it has, at some instances even on short notices, provided the much needed human capital to the causes that help in uplifting the socio-economic betterment of the nation.

Maryam Khan: "I am a medical student, as NVP's placement is in line with a candidate's interests, they linked me with Sehat-Kahani, an Institution that works for health-care. The team offered me to gain diversified experience by making me participate in this event"

Saddam Hussain: "I am ever-ready to become an associate in event management activities, it is surprising how NVP remembers my preferences, and keeps getting me connected to such opportunities"

Geeta Khatri: "Barriers such as distance and locations don't get in my way, I know the importance of being part of such large-scale events, if nothing else, they improve your networking and you get to fill in the knowledge bucket at-least in one way or the other"

Mohammad Imran: "I am among those who seeks exposure. I think the NVP TEAM understands it that's why they assigned me to Volunteer at 3rd Karachi International Conference, so that I can have what I seek"

Rehan Aslam: "Pursuing Environmental studies at Mehran University of Engineering and Technology, Jamshoro. I am already enjoying working with Indus Earth Trust, NVP's partner Institution, and then this cherry on the top happened. NVP connected me to another opportunity that facilitates me in my studies"

Sana Baxamoosa
General Manager, Hisaar Foundation

"NVP Volunteers have their valuable contributions in making this event successful, they were an integral part of the team and I can say that with your help we managed much effectively than we could have with just our team on board"
